FORTHCOMING CONFERENCE

He Korero Tawhito, He Korero Hou: History Here and Now
8 to 11 February 1996
Victoria University of Wellington

This national history conference will focus on issues of identity and the rapidly changing shape of history. A range of speakers from New Zealand and beyond will present fresh perspectives on the past — our own and others'. A particular feature of the conference will be visits to places around the Wellington area where history is being 'made'.

The conference is organised by the New Zealand Historical Association and Te Pouhere Korero in conjunction with the Archives and Records Association (ARANZ), the Professional Historians' Association (PHANZA), the National Oral History Association (NOHANZ), the Trade Union History Project (TUHP) and the Victoria University of Wellington Centre for Continuing Education / Te Whare Pukenga.

For a detailed enrolment brochure, ring 4-499-4745 or fax 4-496-6550 or email continuing-education@vuw.ac.nz. The deadline for special 'earlybird' enrolment is Friday 1 December.
