The Cambridge
Ancient History
Third edition

Volume I, Part 2: The Early History of the Middle East

Edited by I. E. S. Edwards, C. J. Gadd and N. G. L. Hammond
Because of the growth of knowledge in the past 45 years, Volumes I and II of the Cambridge Ancient History have had to be rewritten, increased in size and divided into two parts. The individual chapters have already been issued separately as fascicles, and are now published with new maps, chronological tables and indexes which can be found only in the complete volumes. This volume deals with the history of the Near East from about 3000 to 1750 B.C.

Landfall 100
The celebratory 100th issue of the New Zealand quarterly Landfall
‘... it is hard to underline with sufficient emphasis the value to any country of an honest literary periodical with no axe to grind which proves hardy enough to survive, under disinterested editorship, on its own merits.’
James Bertram, N.Z. Listener

‘By any standards Landfall 100 is an excellent production, a cumulative tribute to the effort and integrity of Charles Brasch, Robin Dudding, and The Caxton Press.’
