EDITORIAL NOTE

IN each issue of the Journal we endeavour to include articles of particular interest to history teachers because of their relevance to the syllabuses. In the present issue Dr Ann Trotter assesses some recent literature about east Asia in the 1930s.

Because of rapidly rising costs of printing and production the lay-out of the Journal has been modified. Notes are now placed at the end of each article.

CHINA

CULTURAL & POLITICAL PERSPECTIVES

Edited by D. Bing

This Volume contains a selection of Papers presented at the first New Zealand International Conference on Chinese Studies in 1972.

A wide variety of subjects, ranging from Chinese Landscape Painting, Poetry, and Ceramics, on the one hand, to China's relations with countries such as Japan, Rumania and the United States, on the other.

Probable Price $10.00
