THE ALEXANDER TURNBULL LIBRARY
RESEARCH ENDOWMENT FUND

The Turnbull Conference on New Zealand Social History, 'New Directions', was sponsored by the Alexander Turnbull Library, National Library of New Zealand, Wellington, with the financial assistance of the National Library of New Zealand and the Alexander Turnbull Library Research Endowment Fund. The Fund has made a substantial grant to the University of Auckland towards the publication of proceedings of the conference in the New Zealand Journal of History.

The Research Endowment Fund is incorporated under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 with the general objectives of advancing learning and the arts and sciences through the promotion and support of scholarly research and publication based on the collections of the Alexander Turnbull Library. The fund is empowered to create fellowships and scholarships, to make grants in aid of research and publication, to sponsor conferences, seminars, lectures and meetings, to assist the Library in the accumulation of its collections, and to provide support for other activities which will benefit the Library.

The Research Endowment Fund is administered under the direction of the board of the Alexander Turnbull Library Endowment Trust.

Financial support for the Research Endowment Fund has been provided by

The Todd Foundation

The Sir John Ilott Charitable Trust

The Sutherland Self-Help Trust

NEW ZEALAND HISTORY

The Webbs in New Zealand, 1898

Beatrice and Sidney Webb's diary, edited by David Hamer, $2.50.

Edward Gibbon Wakefield in New Zealand by Peter Stuart. A most illuminating and elegantly written book about this fascinating episode in New Zealand's political life, $3.50.

The Origins of New Zealand Diplomacy — The Agent-General in London 1870-1905 by R.M. Dalziel.

An account of the London careers of Reeves, Featherston, Vogel, Bell and Perceval. Excellent reviews, $3.50.

The Turanga Journals. Missionary papers of William and Jane Williams 1840-1850, edited by Frances Porter.

A handsome book, carefully prepared, with a portrait and several illustrations. Through the letters and journals the reader is put in touch with the busy complicated Maori-missionary — settler-government scene of the whole colony, $12.00.
