The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History

Editors A J Stockwell, Royal Holloway, University of London, UK
and Peter Burroughs, London, UK

Launched in 1972, to fill an obvious gap in the ranks of historical periodicals, this journal has established itself as an internationally respected forum for the presentation and discussion of recent research in the history of the British Empire and Commonwealth and in comparative European colonial experiences. Particular attention is given to imperial policy and rivalries, colonial rule and local response; the rise of nationalism, the process of decolonization and the transfer of power and institutions; the evolution of the Imperial and Commonwealth association in general; and the expansion and transformation of British culture.
