

AUSTRALIAN HISTORICAL STUDIES

First published in 1940, AHS is now one of Australia's best known academic journals, appearing in April and October. In 2001, there will be a third, free, special edition - Challenging Histories: Views of Australia in the Centenary Year, based on a conference to be held at the State Library of Victoria in October.

The April issue includes articles by Bongiorno, Chesterman, Walter, Wright, Meaney, Ward and White on such diverse issues as ethical socialism, civil rights for indigenous Australians, marriage and women hotel-keepers, together with discussions of aspects of Australian identity.

The Journal of Pacific History

EXECUTIVE EDITOR

Jennifer Terrell, Australian National University, Canberra

EDITORS

Chris Ballard, Australian National University, Canberra

Hank Nelson, Australian National University, Canberra

Supported by an Editorial Advisory Board and Correspondents.

The Journal of Pacific History serves historians, prehistorians, anthropologists and others interested in the study of mankind in the Pacific Islands (including Hawaii and New Guinea), and is concerned generally with political, economic, religious and cultural factors affecting human presence there. It publishes articles, annotated previously unpublished manuscripts, notes on source material, comment on current affairs and an annual bibliography. It also welcomes articles on other geographical regions, such as Africa and Southeast Asia, or of a theoretical character, where these are concerned with problems of significance in the Pacific.

This journal is also available online.
