SCIENCE AND EXPLORATION:
EUROPEAN VOYAGES TO THE SOUTHERN OCEANS IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
18-19 SEPTEMBER 1997

National Maritime Museum in association with
The Royal Society

This multi-disciplinary conference will explore and re-evaluate the context, expectations and outcomes of Cook's 1768-71 voyage to the South Seas in Endeavour. It will focus on the scientific and cultural issues emerging from this and successive Pacific voyages.

Organized by the National Maritime Museum in association with The Royal Society. The conference will be held in the Royal Society's conference rooms at Carlton House Terrace, London SW1.

Subjects for discussion at the conference will include:

- The motives for the Endeavour voyage
- How the voyage was reported and the response in Britain and Europe
- The astronomy of Cook's voyages
- Perceptual shifts and transformations resulting from cultural interaction in the Pacific
- The early years of the Missionary Society in Tahiti
- The legacy of Cook's voyage in terms of plant collecting today
