EDITORIAL BOARD

Chris Ballard, James Griffin, W.N. Gunson, Margaret Jolly, Robert Langdon, Hank Nelson, Jennifer Terrell (Executive Editor)

Supported by a Board of International Correspondents

The Journal of Pacific History serves historians, prehistorians, anthropologists and others interested in the study of mankind in the Pacific Islands (including Hawaii and New Guinea), and is concerned generally with political, economic, religious and cultural factors affecting human presence there. It publishes articles, annotated previously unpublished manuscripts, notes on source material and comment on current affairs. It also welcomes articles on other geographical regions, such as Africa and Southeast Asia, or of a theoretical character, where these are concerned with problems of significance in the Pacific.
